

I have a weakness for sweets.

I want to open a small tearoom where I can serve delicious cakes and tea.

Family comes before anything else in my life. I live with my parents and my grandmother. Everyone in our family is cheerful, and at our house, there is laughter all year round. My grandmother really understands how I feel. She cheers me up whenever I'm down. At first impression, my Dad seems a little stern, but he's a real family man. Just the other day, he consulted me about a birthday present for Mom, taking care to keep it a secret from her. My mother is so kind and caring. She is my ideal image of a woman. My mother is a good cook. I like bread. Whenever I eat bread, it reminds me of my mother. She made good delicious bread for me when I was a child. It is said that Japanese people live on rice, but we often eat bread and noodles, too. I usually have a piece of toast and scrambled eggs for breakfast. I have a weakness for sweets. I'm crazy about baking cakes. One of my biggest sources of enjoyment is baking cakes and cookies. It is very exciting to try new recipes. I always bake birthday cakes for my family and friends. I want to open a small tearoom where I can serve delicious cakes and tea. That is why I'm taking classes to learn how to bake cakes.
